

Hugh Sawrey "The Prankster"

Toowoomba Grammar School Art Show Inspired by the bush...

The land, the skies, the wildlife and the people of the bush provide unending inspiration for a wide variety of artists, many of which will be showcased at the Toowoomba Grammar School Art Show in March.

Legendary outback artist, Hugh Sawrey loved to capture the personalities he came across in the bush. The Cogan Creek Hotel was a favourite spot of his, home of "The Prankster" which captures so much of the larrikinism and the way people from the bush thoroughly enjoy themselves.

Feature artist for the 2014 Art Show, Heidi Tansey has spent her lifetime being intrigued by beetles and bugs and the myths associated with them, as well as the magnificent trees of our country. Tansey lets her imagination twist and turn the beetles and trees into mesmerizingly colourful mixed media creations.

Southern Downs artist, Loretta Grayson sees the sky and landscapes develop into finely detailed patterns of colour. Grayson then paints the patterns with gouache on Arches cotton rag paper or crochets them into vivid bunting and cushions.

With a wide range of paintings, sculptures, vases, jewellery, textural creations, photography and millinery ranging from $40 to six figure investment pieces from 200 artists, everyone is welcome to attend this art lovers' weekend on 29 and 30 March.

Savour the moment, gather some friends and enjoy High Tea in conjunction with the Art Show, truly one of the most enjoyable events on Toowoomba's social calendar.

Tickets for Opening Night and High Tea are available online or by phoning (07) 4687 2500. Book tickets early, as they are limited and always sell out.

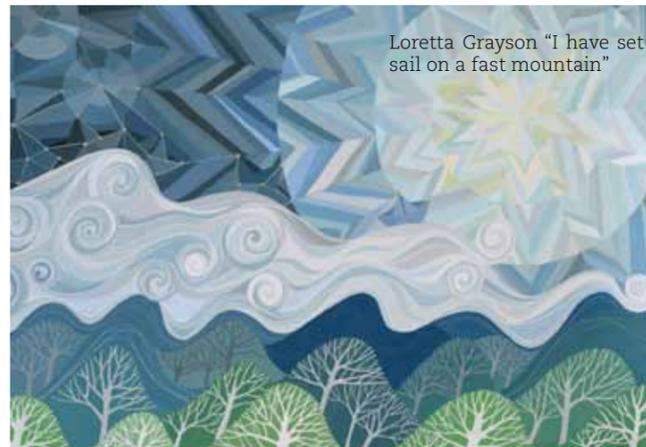

The Art Show is open 10am to 4pm on Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 March. Door entry is only $5.00 and everyone is welcome to come and enjoy. <http://artshow.twgs.qld.edu.au>
